President's Report

and Honor Roll of Donors

Bridgewater College

Introduction

This report summarizes the highlights of student and faculty activities during the 1976-77 academic year and includes a financial report of the College as of June 30, 1977. Also included is an honor roll of alumni, parents, friends, churches, businesses, and foundations involved in providing the essential support that made possible this successful year.

The fact that Bridgewater College opened its 1977-78 academic year with 829 students, an increase of 50 as compared with the enrollment of just one year ago, is a heartening indication that Bridgewater College's value-oriented educational program fills the needs of today's young people and is being increasingly recognized as doing so.

The 1977-78 entering freshman class of 266, representing an increase of 21% over the entering class of just a year ago, emphasizes the importance of doing a thorough job of telling the Bridgewater story. Greater numbers of prospective students are learning that the solid liberal arts background which Bridgewater offers is enhanced by purposeful independent study and practicum experience. The recently created logo "For A Career — For A Better Life" found on our admissions publications emphasizes the value of the preparation for life which the Bridgewater approach offers. The special efforts made in keeping with this logo seize upon Bridgewater's traditions and move them forward.

Several new programs have been initiated which attest to the responsiveness of the faculty and administration in anticipating and meeting the needs of students in changing times. They include:

- an upgraded career counseling center utilizing alumni, faculty, staff, and individual and group counseling sessions to assist the students in finding their career directions;

- a renewed commitment to assist students in finding and achieving personal growth goals through the system of faculty advisors and vocational counseling and by broadening their experiences with off-campus study tours, practicum work experiences, and independent study;

- a new opportunity for perspective elementary and kindergarten teachers to study at St. Mary's College, Chaltenham, near London, England, under the Brethren Colleges Abroad Program;

- the continuous development of a Bridgewater curriculum with special enrichment endeavors;

- expanded efforts to improve further the quality of residence hall life on campus.

The future of our society continues to depend to a significant degree upon the continued health and strength of private higher education. The Bridgewater endeavor involves alumni, parents, students, faculty and staff, trustees, and a broad supportive constituency in generous investments of time, talent, and resources in the present and the future of our school and our young people. In thanking you for past investments, we invite you to join us in moving toward the future.

Wayne F. Geisert
President

Throughout this year President Geisert served a term as President of the Virginia Foundation for Independent Colleges, succeeding Robert E. R. Huntley, President of Washington and Lee University. In March, he served as chairman of a visiting committee of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools evaluating Florida Southern College. Most recently, he was elected to a five-year term on the General Board of the Church of the Brethren as a member-at-large and was elected Vice Chairman of the Board.

Students

One hundred forty-seven students received bachelor of arts and bachelor of science degrees in commencement exercises May 29. Nineteen graduated in August. This number compares with 146 who received degrees in May and 21 in August of 1976. Two students graduated with highest honors, Scott D. Moore of Dayton, Virginia, with a 4.0 quality point average in three years as a general science major and Sharon L. Mason of College Park, Maryland, in economics, with a 3.9. Nine students graduated magna cum laude (3.5 or better), and 25 graduated cum laude (3.2 or better).

The commencement address was given by A. Blair Helman, President of Manchester College in North Manchester, Indiana. Dr. Helman was presented the honorary Doctor of Humane Letters in the commencement ceremonies.

Enrollment in the fall of 1976 was 779, down slightly from the previous year's total enrollment of 804. It included 396 men and 383 women from 18 states, the District of Columbia, and Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Germany, Guyana, India, Lebanon, South Korea, Venezuela, and Viet Nam. In addition, there were 13 special and part-time students and two who studied under the Brethren Colleges Abroad program in Strasbourg, France.

The geographic origin of students in the 1976-77 academic year follows:

Virginia	516	New York	12
Maryland	106	Florida	10
Pennsylvania	46	West Virginia	10
New Jersey	40	Other states, foreign
Delaware	14	countries and the District of Columbia	25

Music

Through the years, Bridgewater has been known for its fine musical performances. This past year was no exception. An exciting performance of Handel's "Messiah" by the oratorio choir in December under the direction of Prof. Philip Trout, was presented in the Bridgewater Church of the Brethren with an audience that filled the sanctuary and chapel and overflowed into the hallways.

A performance by the concert band in December under the director of Prof. Thomas R. Thornley, Jr. was also well attended and well received.

The chorale under Prof. Clifton Pritchett's direction performed during the year for college, school, church, civic, and alumni functions. The highlight of the year was its tour into Central Florida during spring vacation, where the group gave concerts in churches and schools in the Orlando-Sebring area.

The stage band, with its outstanding instrumentalists and fine vocalists, also performed for many different audiences during the year. Its big band sounds and nostalgia-evoking music were appreciated by all audiences. The local public television station, WVPT-TV, taped a performance in Cole Hall in May and presented it several weeks later to its Shenandoah Valley viewers.

The concert choir presented 25 concerts in Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia during five weekends in April and May. Its repertoire included masterworks of sacred choral music from earlier centuries through the present time.

Drama and Forensics

The Pinion Players under the direction of Ralph MacPhail, Jr. presented two full-length productions during the year — The Best Man in October, and The Miser in February. The Best Man by Gore Vidal, a study of the American presidential election process, was appropriately presented just one week before the national presidential balloting when interest in the election was high. The Miser by Moliere was presented "in-the-round" on the Cole Hall stage. Through this type of production, the audience was better able to relate to the action than would have been possible with the traditional staging.

Three student-directed one-act plays were presented in April — readings from "Notes on Nimoy," by actor Leonard Nimoy; "Final Performance," directed by Jennie Hommel; and "Black Rose," an original script by student director Cyndi Orr.

A team of debaters under debate coach Dale Mekeel qualified for the octafinals in the Wake Forest University Junior Debate Tournament held in October in Winston-Salem, N.C. Members of the team were Pam Kline and Doug Brown, both freshmen general science majors. The team of Doug Brown and John Early, also a freshman general science major, won third place in the junior varsity tournament at the College of William and Mary in December. The same team participated in the Suffolk Novice Debate Tournament in Boston in February, with Doug Brown receiving a third place speaker's award.

An invitational tournament for high school debaters, directed by Pam Kline and Doug Brown, was held on campus in February with representatives from 11 secondary schools taking part.

Interterm

The interterm continues to be an exciting part of the academic calendar and is growing in the variety and quality of courses offered since it began in 1972. Students and faculty members give it high ratings on many counts—the pleasant change of pace, close faculty-student relationships, opportunities for first-hand learning, and educationally valuable experiences.

Study tours this year included a trip to Colombia, South America, conducted by Prof. Robert Houts. The group visited the cities of Cartagena and Santa Marta studying colonial life and architecture. Also included were boat trips into the interior to visit coffee and banana plantations.

A tour of museums, galleries, churches, palaces, and other sites in Rome and Florence, Italy, was conducted by Professor Paul Kline in a special course in art history.

Linda Andes Georges, '68, daughter of Dr. Raymond Andes, Professor of French, conducted a group of students through Paris, Versailles, Chartres, Grenoble, and Strasbourg, visiting French homes, schools, and scenic attractions.

Professor William Albright directed student participation in a multi-cultural construction project in Guatemala under the auspices of Church World Service, helping to rebuild houses destroyed in an earthquake.

Dr. Harry Jopson and a group of students studied areas of ecological interest in the American Southwest. The class visited Big Bend National Park, Grand Canyon National Park, and a number of other places of interest.

Dr. William Mengebier and Dr. Michael Hill took students to the Bermuda Biological Station where they heard lectures by the director of the Station, the curator of the Bermuda aquarium and museum, and the director of the Conservation Department of the Government of Bermuda. They also carried out independent research projects and took field trips to a bird sanctuary and to the botanical gardens.

Professor Lamar Neal conducted a study-tour to the United Nations headquarters in New York City where the students studied various special UN programs, received briefings from a number of delegations, and carried out independent study projects.

Dr. Charles Churchman of the English Department took a group of students to Tennessee and Mississippi as a part of a study of Southern writers. They visited areas made famous by William Faulkner and Mark Twain.

Some of the more unusual courses taught on campus were: a study of Sub-Saharan Music, a study of herbs and folk medicine, the production of a children's play, collecting folklore, archaeology and the Biblical world, perspectives of biofeedback, and creative photographic techniques.

Students report high satisfaction with these firsthand learning experiences, noting that they are often the most memorable of their collegiate educational endeavors.

Independent Studies

Throughout the year, students engaged in a number of independent study projects and practicum experience which were particularly valuable to them in career preparations. Two of the more notable ones this year were carried out by Michael Carr and Dale Birkle.

Mr. Carr was selected to represent Bridgewater College as a research fellow at the George C. Marshall Research Foundation during a month in the spring. While there, he conducted research and wrote a paper on Marshall's policy of containment, working with historical papers at the Marshall Library on the campus of Virginia Military Institute. Mr. Carr particularly enjoys U.S. diplomatic history and hopes to go to law school after graduation.

Dale Birkle, a 1977 senior general science major, had a paper published in the Journal of Organic Chemistry on research which she conducted in the summer of 1976 at the Naval Research Lab in Washington, D.C. The paper she wrote in a chemistry honors course was presented at the American Chemical Society Conference in New Orleans in March.

Athletics

In fall sports the women's field hockey team finished its season with a 4-8-1 record. The varsity was led by inner Carolyn Phillips, who scored 9 goals, and wing Eileen Waterhouse with 5 goals. The junior varsity finished with a 6-5-1 record led by inner Sue Hofmann with 6 goals and halfback Alice Ryan with 4. The team was coached by Laura Mapp.

The football team completed its season with a 1-8 record, its one win coming in the final game of the season against Newport News Apprentice. Freshman running back Tony Davenport scored 9 touchdowns and had a total of 758 yards for the season. Senior defensemen Mike Stevens, Eric Mondres, and Nolan Morris had fine individual seasons. The head coach is John Spencer.

The cross-country team under "Doc" Harry Jopson took a second place finish in the first annual Old Dominion Athletic Conference Championship. The team was led by senior Mike Kidd and sophomore Jerry Crouse. Kidd set a new school course record of 24:54.7, and Crouse had a top time of 25:41 over Bridgewater's 5.0 mile course.

The women's volleyball team, coached by Mary Frances Heishman, finished its first season of intercollegiate competition with varsity and junior varsity records of 7-10 and 3-7 respectively.

The men's basketball team finished its season with a 6-18 record. A conference win over Emory and Henry took the team into the first Old Dominion Athletic Conference tournament, in which they lost to Washington & Lee. The team was led by freshman Barney Reiley and sophomore Woody Hays with 13.1 and 11.6 averages respectively. Sophomore Jim Mumper led in free throws, percentage of field shots, and rebounds. The team was coached by Mel Myers.

The women's basketball team held on to its championship title in the Small College Tournament of the Virginia Federation of Intercollegiate Sports for Women. The team's season record was 14-7. Leading scorers were Janet Stivers with a 12.1 average and Lou Moore with 11.0. The team was coached by Laura Mapp.

In baseball, Coach Jim Reedy's team finished with a 10-14 record. The team batting average of .292 was second in the conference. The Eagles had five hitters over .300 — Terry Brown, Russ Laub, Jeff Gianakos, Silas Harvey, and Jeff Wholey.

The spring track team, led by senior Ricky Davis with 112½ points in his first season of track competition, finished second in the ODAC meet, 54 points to Lynchburg College's 57. Members of the winning 440 relay team were Davis, Greg Harper, Alvin Younger, and Jeff Horton. Mike Kidd finished first in the mile (4:20.3), and Bill Tucker in the 100 (10.04).

The women's lacrosse team compiled a 5-8 record for the varsity and 2-5 for the jayvees. Charlotte Beahm, Lou Moore, and Kathy Moss led with goal totals of 29, 17, and 16 respectively. Ten players were chosen to participate in the Southern District Tournament, and Donna Nichols was chosen for the Southern District 3rd team to the National Tournament. Mary Frances Heishman coached the team.

In tennis, the men achieved their third consecutive winning season, finishing with a 7-5 record, led by Steve Broache, 8-4 at No. 1. Rush Barnett finished 7-5 at No. 2. Carlyle Whitelow was the coach.

The golf team, coached by Lamar Neal, finished with a 3-10 record, led by Steve Johnson with a 78.5 average.

Faculty and Administration

Bridgewater's faculty and administration are engaged in numerous activities which enrich their professional lives and contribute to the advancement of knowledge. Some of these achievements and activities for this past academic year are highlighted here.

Fine Arts

Dr. John G. Barr, Associate Professor of Organ and Piano, received his doctorate in sacred music from the School of Sacred Music of Union Theological Seminary in New York City. The title of his dissertation was "A Tonal History of Pipe Organs Built by M. P. Moeller, Inc." In addition to his teaching, Dr. Barr serves as organist at the Bridgewater Church of the Brethren and is the composer of several musical works, including a cantata for solo voice and instrumental ensemble and a chorale prelude for organ.

Speech and drama professor Ralph MacPhail, Jr., '65, was awarded a $400 Mednick Memorial Fund grant to support some facets of his research projects related to the work of Victorian dramatist W. S. Gilbert. In October, Mr. MacPhail served on an evaluation committee of the State Department of Education which visited Henrico High School following the completion of the school's self-study for the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Art professor Paul Kline, '53, and Robert Purvis displayed work at the Staunton Fine Arts Center during November in an invitational exhibit of sculpture. Work by Professor Kline was also included in a juried show at the Roanoke Fine Arts Center and in a show at Longwood College.

Jesse E. Hopkins, '70, was appointed to the Music Department faculty for the fall of '77. He succeeds Professor Clifton Pritchett, '59, who has entered the family business in Maryland. Mr. Hopkins holds a Master of Music degree from James Madison University and has done additional graduate work at the College of the Holy Names, Oakland, California. He taught choral music at Turner Ashby High School from 1970 until his appointment to the Bridgewater faculty.

Humanities

Dr. M. Ellsworth Kyger, '42, Professor of Modern Languages, is conducting research under the sponsorship of the Pennsylvania German Society, which research is expected to lead to the publication of an English-Pennsylvania German dictionary.

Dr. Charles J. Churchman of the English Department was selected as a visiting scholar to participate in a seminar at Duke University in the summer of 1977 on the topic, "Religious Structures in British and American Literature." The program was sponsored by Lilly Endowment, Inc. He will return to the Duke campus in the spring of 1978 to do further research.

Professor Russell L. Dunlap, Associate Professor of English, retired at the end of the academic year after 13 years on the faculty.

Dr. James J. Kirkwood, Chairman of the Department of English, was on sabbatical leave during the winter term and interterm of 1977. He examined the ways the mind represents experience, dealing in particular with Ernst Cassirer's philosophy of symbolic forms and with the nature of symbol and metaphor.

Dr. W. Robert McFadden, Chairman of the Department of Philosophy and Religion, continued to represent the Brethren Colleges on the Board of Directors of Bethany Theological Seminary, Oak Brook, Illinois. He also served as a leader for the annual conference of the Virginia Teachers of Weekday Religious Education held on the Bridgewater campus.

Dr. Roger E. Sappington, Professor of History, is the compiler and editor of a book, The Brethren in the New Nation (July, 1976, Brethren Press, Elgin, Ill.) The 500-page source book depicts the history of the Brethren from 1785-1865. Dr. Sappington also had an article published in the journal, Brethren Life and Thought, entitled "Brethren Preaching During the Years before the Civil War."

During the winter term and interterm, W. Steve Watson, Jr., Associate Professor of Philosophy and Religion, was on sabbatical leave to continue work on his doctoral dissertation under the auspices of Emory University. He also held a Mednick Memorial Fund grant to provide some additional support in that undertaking.

Dr. Donald R. Witters, Professor of Psychology, had a paper published in the winter edition of the journal, Improving College and University Teaching. Entitled "Programmed Teaching: A Procedural Guide," it provides guidelines for applying programming techniques to classroom instruction. Dr. Witters also spent his third summer supervising a practicum in Applied Behavior Analysis at the DeJarnette Center for Human Development in Staunton, where he also served as a consultant to the staff.

Sciences

Dr. Paul J. Bender of the Department of Mathematics joined the faculty in September, 1976. His research on the optimization theory in applied mathematics resulted in a paper accepted for publication in the January, 1978, edition of the Journal of Optimization Theory and Applications.

Theodore W. Flory, '70, Manager of the C. E. Shull Computing Center, was the speaker at the October, 1976, meeting of COMMON, an organization of the users of small IBM computers, held in St. Louis Missouri, in a session entitled "FLMT-A Text Editor." The presentation related to a computer program that has been developed, in part, at Bridgewater College over the past four years. He was also chairman of a session on "An Introduction to Data Base." At the April, 1977, meeting in Chicago, he served as chairman of a seminar and panel discussion on "FORTRAN-PRE-PROCESSORS," a method of improving the FORTRAN Language with a minimum of effort.

Dr. L. Michael Hill, Professor of Biology, conducted a seminar at the University of Virginia for graduate students and faculty on his research in Virginia and New Hampshire on asters. He is also doing a survey of all asters growing in the Commonwealth for the Virginia Flora Committee of the Virginia Academy of Science with a grant from the Academy.

Dr. Fred Keihn of the Chemistry Department was selected to participate as a visiting scholar in a seminar sponsored by Lilly Endowment, Inc., in the summer of 1977 at Duke University. The topic: "Structures in Nature: from Molecules to Man." He also attended two "Chataqua-type" short courses for college teachers sponsored by the American Association for the Advancement of Science at the University of Maryland and conducted by the Executive Director of the Institute for Theoretical Physics of the State University of New York at Stony Brook.

Dr. John W. Martin, '44, Professor of Chemistry, was selected to participate in the visiting scholars program at Duke University sponsored by Lilly Endowment, Inc. The seminar of which he was a part discussed ecological and environmental concerns.

Dr. William C. Mengebier, Chairman of the Department of Biology, taught physiology and zoology to specially selected high school students for his fourth and fifth summers during 1976 and 1977 in the Governor's School for the Gifted held at Mary Baldwin College. Dr. Mengebier also wrote a chapter in the book, Case Histories of Tentmakers, on his dual role as scientist and priest. For many years he has been involved in teaching, research and administration, while also serving as an ordained priest of the Episcopal Church.

Dr. Dale V. Ulrich, Dean of the College and Professor of Physics, was named President-elect of the Virginia Academy of Science for 1977-78. As president-elect he will be responsible for the program of the next annual meeting which will be held May 9-12, 1978, on the campus of Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. Dr. Ulrich has been a member of the academy since 1958. He has served as Chairman of the Long Range Planning Committee, as Director of the Visiting Scientists Program, as Treasurer, and as a member of the Finance and Endowment Committee of the Academy.

John White, '58, Professor of Mathematics and Computer Science, presented a paper at the Virginia Academy of Science as part of a panel on Statistics in the Liberal Arts. Professor White is a member of the Council representing the Statistics Section.

Student Development

A number of personnel changes took place during the year within the area of student development. Jean M. Yerian was appointed Assistant Dean for Student Development at the beginning of the 1976-77 year. Mrs. Yerian, who holds an A.B. degree from Duke University and an M.A. from Ohio State University in student personnel work, has had prior experience in teaching and in counseling. During her first year at Bridgewater, she developed programs designed to assist the students in achieving goals of personal maturity.

Dr. Martha Thornton, Professor of Religion and Philosophy and former Associate Dean for Student Development, moved into the newly created position of Coordinator for Career Planning as an addition to her part-time teaching responsibilities. Dr. Thornton has been working primarily with freshmen and sophomores in an effort to assist them in examining their interests, values, experiences, and skills in order to find career directions. She is also developing a career library, giving vocational tests, and bringing alumni on campus to share information about their vocations with interested students. Additionally, she is coordinating opportunities for the students to explore vocational directions with other qualified faculty and staff members.

Richard S. Ferris, former Dean of Student Affairs at Kendall College in Evanston, Illinois, was named Dean for Student Development in the summer of 1977. Mr. Ferris holds an A.B. degree from Miami University in Ohio and a Master of Divinity degree with a major in pastoral psychology from Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary in Evanston, Illinois. He brings to his new position a great deal of experience as a teacher, pastor, counselor, chaplain, and administrator in student affairs and higher education. He succeeded Dean Brian Hildebrand, '67, who was named Dean for Counseling and Director of the Campus Center.

Steve Mason, '74, assumed the position of Assistant Dean for Student Development in the summer of 1977. He joined the student personnel staff in February of 1977, returning to Bridgewater College from a guidance position in the public schools of Sebring, Florida. For the two years immediately following his graduation from Bridgewater he was assistant to the Director of the Kline Campus Center. In his present position he is responsible for housing, room assignments, and working with the resident advisors on the men's side of the campus as well as working with student clubs and organizations.

Campus Events

Concerts and Lectures

The Lyceum Series, convocation programs, and special topic seminars enrich the cultural life of the campus with the talents and expertise of outstanding musicians and speakers in a wide variety of fields.

Appealing to a variety of tastes, this past year they ranged from the Student Senate-sponsored concert featuring Peter Yarrow, formerly with Peter, Paul, and Mary, to the New York Harp Ensemble under the direction of Artistid Von Wurtzler. Also on campus were London organist Robert Langston, the Brass Winds Ensemble of the University of Kentucky, the National Opera Company, and the Howard Hanger Trio.

Among the speakers appearing on campus during the year were Dr. Langdon Gilkey, Professor of Theology at the University of Chicago Divinity School; Dr. Theodore R. Reinhart, Professor of Anthropology at the College of William and Mary; Dore Ashton, Professor of Art History for the Cooper Union for the Advancement of Science and Art; and the Honorable Colin Jackson, member of the British Parliament.

Plays, films, panel discussions, recitalists, and ensembles rounded out the cultural program. Many of them were planned by students out of their own interests and concerns. Others demonstrated the skills and talents of Bridgewater's fine student musicians.

Spiritual Life Institute

Participants in this year's 82nd Spiritual Life Institute gained renewal and new perspectives from the three featured speakers: Dr. Howard G. Hageman, President of New Brunswick Seminary; Dr. Granger E. Westberg, Director of the Wholistic Health Centers; and the Rev. H. Lamar Gible, Peace and International Affairs Consultant of the World Ministries Commission of the Church of the Brethren.

Continuing Education

Dr. Richard E. Anderson, Associate Director of the Institute for Higher Education of the Teachers College of Columbia University, addressed the faculty at the opening faculty meetings in the fall of 1976, on the topic "Private Colleges and the Need to be Distinctive." Dr. Anderson has studied private colleges extensively through use of the College and University Environment Scales. The scales were administered to upperclass students at Bridgewater in 1965 and again in 1975. The faculty and Dr. Anderson discussed changes that took place on the campus in the decade between the two samplings. Views were expressed that the College should continue to strive toward distinctiveness and that it should continue to resist the prevalent tendencies to drift toward the common denominator in higher education. It was the consensus that the College must continue its emphasis on high scholastic standards and on working toward improving student attitudes toward scholarship.

Special Events

There were a number of memorable occasions during the year for guests visiting the campus. These included the President's Dinner in November, the Colonial Dinner in December, and the Founders Day Dinner in April.

More than 200 guests, members of the College's Investors and Benefactors Giving Clubs and other special guests, were in attendance at the President's Dinner on November 5th. In his remarks on that occasion, Ralph A. Beeton, Chairman of the Board, President, and Chief Executive of First Virginia Bankshares Corporation and a member of the Board of the Virginia Foundation for Independent Colleges, stated that he felt that independent colleges are the basic safeguard for a free and strong America.

Members of the College staff and students spent many hours in preparation for the Colonial Dinner, held in December for two nights, to accommodate those who wished to make it a part of their holiday festivities. The Colonial menu, decorations, costumes, music, and dramatic skits combined to make it a very gala occasion.

The nearly 500 guests in attendance for the Founders Day dinner in early April heard Dr. Frederic W. Ness, President of the Association of American Colleges, emphasize that the church-related college is the most promising environment for the exploration of ethical principles and for the moral and spiritual development of its students. The dinner occasion capped a day which featured a display of graphic art by Isaac J. Sanger, '24, who was presented with the Outstanding Achievement Award by the College. Dr. Ness was awarded an honorary Doctor of Humanities degree during the morning convocation following his address to the faculty and student body on the topic, "Is There Really Life after College?"

Two other occasions during the year which see the largest influx of visitors to campus are Homecoming and Parents Day. During this past year, Homecoming, October 16, 1976, offered a special Homecoming Center in the Multipurpose Room of Rebecca Hall where alumni could eat doughnuts and drink coffee while chatting with old friends and former professors. Members of the classes of '56, '61, '66, '71, and '75 gathered for special reunion dinners followed by a concert featuring the combined talents of the chorale and stage band.

Members of the Parents' Advisory Committee under the chairmanship of Mr. & Mrs. J. Ralph Hollenberg of Sebring, Florida, assisted College faculty and staff in providing a cordial atmosphere for the families of students who visited the campus during Parents Day on October 30, 1976. The College concert band and chorale performed for the parents during the morning program. Other events of the day included field hockey with Roanoke College, a cross-country match with Gallaudet, lunch in the Campus Center, a pipe organ demonstration by Prof. John Barr, the afternoon football game with Washington and Lee University, and the Pinion Players' evening production of The Best Man.

Brethren Youth on Campus

Church of the Brethren young people were specially invited to visit the campus on two occasions during the year, Brethren Youth Day in September and Youth Roundtable in April.

During the fall visit the students became acquainted with the campus, participated in a panel discussion, learned about college life from College staff members, and attended the afternoon football game.

Approximately 400 high school students from the districts of the Church of the Brethren in the Southeastern United States visited the campus during Roundtable which was planned by the members of the Interdistrict Youth Cabinet. Alfred Lile, a graduate of Bethany Seminary and a lawyer with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission in Jackson, Mississippi, was the featured speaker.

50 - 50 Educational Program

At its 1976 spring meeting, the Board of Trustees approved a program offering a 50% discount in basic tuition to persons 50 years of age or older. For persons 65 years of age or older who wish to audit classes on a space available basis, only a nominal charge is levied.

Several persons have taken advantage of the College's offer. Two couples traveled to Mexico during interterm in an anthropology class that studied pre-historic Indian civilizations and archaeological sites in Mexico City. Another couple audited an anthropology class and found it rewarding, informational, and stimulating.

Programs and Plant Development

The renovation of Yount Hall, a project in The First Century Completion Fund effort, was begun during the spring term. With most of the work being done by the college maintenance staff, much of the project was completed in time for the opening of school in the fall of 1977.

Yount Hall is being completely renovated from top to bottom, with the architecturally-unique suspended stairway left intact. The building, most recently used as a residence for men, is providing badly needed space for the Admissions, Financial Aids, and Career Counseling Offices and for faculty offices and classrooms. Also completed during the summer were parking facilities for the Yount Hall offices and a new driveway to the west of Yount necessitated by the projected swimming pool addition to the gymnasium.

The Department of Philosophy and Religion has received the first installment of the pictorial archive of the historical geography of the Holy Land being purchased by the College. A project that is expected to be completed within three years, these materials have been produced by Dr. Richard Cleave of Jerusalem. They will add to the resources for teaching Bible and will be especially helpful for understanding Biblical archeology.

The Alexander Mack Memorial Library received a grant for $3,855 from the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, under the Title II Program in July. The grant, which is to be matched by the College, has been designated for the acquisition of materials primarily by and about American minority groups. The grant will be used primarily for the purchase of books, but tapes and records featuring the musical heritage of these groups may also be purchased.

Facts on Finance — The 1976-77 Year

An analysis of the operating statement for the year ended June 30, 1977, and of the balance sheet as of June 30, 1977, confirms that the excellent support provided the College by its constituencies has again made possible a sound fiscal operation while providing an excellent program in private higher education. The ability of the College to maintain its tradition of operating on a balanced budget was due in no small measure to the generous and increasing annual fund and unrestricted gift support of its constituencies.

The net worth of the College increased by over $450,000 during the twelve-month period. Since the assets of the College including its physical facilities and its endowment investments are carried on the books at acquisition costs rather than at current market prices and/or insurable values, the actual worth of the total of the College's assets is substantially more than shown in the balance sheet even in this period of somewhat depressed values in the securities markets.

Contributed Support

From July 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, the College received a total of $708,659.31 in gifts and grants for both current operations and capital development, including the calculated gift value to the College of annuity contracts written and the estimated value of gifts in kind and of real estate. Private support accounted for $596,892.31 of this amount. The accompanying table shows the major sources of funds directed to the College.

assistance, Bridgewater College received for direct use by its students Federal funds totaling $149,833 (National Direct Student Loans - $60,772, Basic Educational Opportunity Grants - $89,061) and Commonwealth of Virginia funds totaling $155,967 (Tuition Assistance Grants - $142,465, College Scholarship Assistance Grants - $13,502).

A total of 1,749 alumni contributed $141,770 through the Annual Alumni Fund effort; the previous year's Alumni Annual Fund giving total was $120,218 from 1,393 donors. Alumni gifts for all purposes during the 1976-77 year amounted to $281,136.

Contributions from local churches of the Church of the Brethren totaled $61,821, almost all of which was in direct support of current operations. Business, corporate, and foundation support totaled $166,728 as compared with the total of $142,345 in 1975-76.

During the year, $118,000 was received as bequests and bequest-related contributions. Estates which included bequests reflected within this figure were those of Miriam Bowman, Ruth H. Cline, William M. Corwin, Bessie E. Ebbert, Myrtle L. Hesse, Lester D. Hoover, Barbara J. Miller, Minor M. and Valley D. Myers.

In addition, memorial gifts were received honoring Mary K. Phillips Garber, Lottie Miller Kline, Merlin Peterson, Mary Kay Simmons, Richard Valentine, and Lavinia Wenger.

Currently, 40 individuals and family units have annuity contracts with the College totaling over $650,000. These agreements assure the annuitants of substantial lifetime earnings and that their investments will be used for the strengthening of Bridgewater College when they no longer require them.

Volunteer Leadership

Trustees

R. Douglas Nininger, '28, of Salem, Virginia, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, was awarded an honorary degree at commencement exercises May 29, 1977. Dr. Nininger was awarded the Doctor of Humane Letters in recognition of his life of dedicated service to humanitarian causes and in recognition of his leadership roles in community and public service institutions including Bridgewater College.

Three new trustees were elected to five-year terms on the board at its 1976 fall meeting. They are Dr. William L. Brown, '36, Johnston, Iowa; Dr. Alvin E. Conner, '49, Manassas, Virginia; and Mr. Richard D. Obenshain, '56, Richmond, Virginia.

Dr. Brown, President's Dinner speaker in 1975, is President of Pioneer Hi-Bred International Inc. of Des Moines, Iowa, one of the largest producers of hybrid seed corn in the world.

Dr. Conner has practiced medicine in Manassas since 1959 with a specialty in pediatrics. He is the senior member of a three-man group with a major interest in mental retardation and learning problems.

Mr. Obenshain is a partner in the law firm of Obenshain, Hinnant & Dolbeare of Richmond. He has served as chairman of the Republican Party of Virginia and as co-chairman of the Republican National Committee. He has also served his alma mater as president of the Alumni Association.

Re-elected to new five-year terms on the Board were Mr. J. Manley Garber, Woodbridge, Virginia; Mr. Robert D. Royer, Richmond, Virginia; Mr. Ernest C. Spoerlein, Oakland, Maryland; Dr. J. Paul Wampler, Manassas, Virginia. Elected to the status of Life Trustees were Dr. Frederick D. Dove, Hagerstown, Maryland; Mr. John M. Kline, Jr., Mt. Crawford, Virginia; and Dr. Robert M. McKinney, Westminster, Maryland.

At its spring meeting the Board of Trustees welcomed into its membership two new honorary trustees, George S. Aldhizer II, of Broadway, Virginia, and Wilmer M. Kline of Manassas, Virginia.

Dr. Aldhizer was awarded an honorary degree by Bridgewater College in April, 1975, in recognition of his accomplishments as a civic leader and as a state senator for five terms. He is the senior partner in the Harrisonburg law firm of Wharton, Aldhizer & Weaver.

Mr. Kline, a member of the class of '23, operates a dairy farm, Wilhalee Farms, Inc., in partnership with his two sons, Harley and Leon. Mr. Kline's present wife, Prema Bitteringer Lipscomb Kline, is a member of the class of 1930. His four children Wilma, '47, Harley, '49, Leon, '51, and Sylvia, '57, all attended Bridgewater, as did their mother, the late Nora Harley Kline, '24.

Alumni Association

Providing able leadership to the Association during the year was Phillip Stone, '65, who turned over the office to President-elect Fred Diehl, '60, of Charlottesville, at the Alumni Dinner, May 28. Other officers for the 1976-77 year were Doris Harsh, '61, Secretary, and Greg Geisert, '72, Treasurer. Taking office July 1, 1977, in addition to Dr. Diehl, were Mrs. Anna Myers Harman, '35, President-elect; Mrs. Esther Pence Garber, '31, Secretary; and Mr. Greg Geisert, '72, Treasurer. Mrs. Lucretia Miller Lane, '66, and Mr. J. Robert Branner, '64, were elected directors-at-large.

Approximately 180 alumni returned to the campus on Alumni Day on May 28, 1977. They enjoyed visiting and reminiscing in their class reunion luncheons. Of special note were the activities of the class of 1927 which celebrated its 50th year reunion. Dr. S. Loren Bowman, '34, who will retire from his responsibilities as General Secretary of the General Board of the Church of the Brethren on December 31, 1977, was named Distinguished Alumnus. Dr. Bowman addressed the members of the Class of 1977 and their families and friends as he delivered the baccalaureate sermon in the College Street Church of the Brethren.

The Alumni Association presented its senior scholarship this year to Michael Carr, a history/political science/international studies major, son of Mrs. T. E. Carr of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. The junior scholarship was presented to Gerald Crouse, a biology major and the son of the Rev. and Mrs. B. Merle Crouse, '52, of St. Cloud, Florida.

The Alumni Association award to a senior for "dependable service and contributions to his class and campus organizations" was presented to John D. Fleishman, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Dewey D. Fleishman of Boones Mill, Va. (Dewey, '28, and Grace Glick Fleishman, '26).

Alumni are helpful to the College in many ways, serving as class chairmen, assisting with receptions for prospective students, attending chapter meetings, and serving as leaders and workers in obtaining additional funding for the College. A number of local alumni responded to the request from Dr. Martha Thornton, career counselor, to share with the students some facets of their vocations. Still others took part in a Career Day on campus, sponsored by the Program Council of the Kline Campus Center. We hope that, in the future, more ties between present students and alumni can be developed. An example of this is providing the opportunity for students interested in a particular vocation to spend a brief internship with alumni in various professional areas. In this manner students gain practical experiences, and alumni provide useful services to them and their alma mater.

Dr. Fred Diehl, '60, Professor of Biology at the University of Virginia and President of the Bridgewater College Alumni Association for 1977-78, speaks to the Alumni Day dinner gathering.

State Senator Nathan H. Miller, '65, attorney with the Harrisonburg law firm of Conrad, Litten, Sipe & Miller and past chairman of the Harrisonburg-Rockingham County Business and Professional campaign, is pictured during the President's Dinner in the Kline Campus Center.

Parents' Advisory Committee

After the strenuous task of moving on campus last fall, new students and their parents were welcomed to the campus and treated to refreshments at a drop-in reception sponsored by the Parents' Advisory Committee and the College.

The Committee members, under the chairmanship of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ralph Hollenberg of Sebring, Florida, were also on campus for Parents Day in the fall. Their willingness to be of assistance, their suggestions, and their ideas are greatly appreciated by the College staff.

Community Support

Nathan H. Miller, '65, served as chairman of the 1976 Harrisonburg-Rockingham County Business and Professional Campaign. An attorney with the Harrisonburg law firm of Conrad, Litten, Sipe and Miller, he is also a Virginia State Senator. Mr. Miller coordinated the solicitation efforts of more than 70 volunteers that resulted in $23,600 in capital gifts to the First Century Completion Fund from the local business community.

First Century Completion Fund

At the close of the College's fiscal year on June 30, 1977, the total amount committed to the 8 by '80 development program was $2,877,499 in cash and pledges. The major portion of the money raised through the 8 by '80 effort will help underwrite the educational program — including student financial aid, faculty salaries, book acquisitions, etc. — and will build the endowment fund. The endowment fund grew by approximately $80,000 during the past year to $1,887,098. The income from these funds can be made immediately available for use in the operating budget and for increased student financial aid. Increasing the endowment to a total of $3 million by 1980 is a Completion Fund objective.

Several projects have already been completed within the scope of the First Century Completion Fund. One of them is the Cole Hall renovation which added badly needed dressing room, storage, and shop areas to our campus auditorium. Also, new seating, lighting, and sound systems were installed to enhance the quality of the many programs presented there during the year.

Another project which is already in use is the addition to the Art Department that more than doubled the existing space. It provides especially well lighted studio facilities for student painters and sculptors.

Although the renovation of Yount Hall has not been completed on the top level, this former dormitory has begun serving the needs of the Admissions, Financial Aids, and Career Counseling offices, and it is anticipated that the faculty offices, seminar rooms, work rooms, and other related areas will be ready soon.

One of the major new construction projects in the offing is a swimming pool addition to the Alumni Gymnasium. Architect's plans are being finalized, and it is hoped that construction can begin in the near future.

Under the direction of James L. Keeler, '57, managing partner of Keeler, Phibbs and Company and National Chairman of the First Century Completion Fund effort, committee members have increased awareness of Bridgewater's needs and have successfully involved greater numbers of its constituency in the advancement of the College.

The Alumni Gifts Committee, under the chairmanship of W. Wallace Hatcher, '55, President of Lantz Construction Company, Broadway, Va., headed the successful 1976-77 Alumni Giving Program that showed a 25 % increase in alumni donors and an increase of more than $20,000 in cash contributions. A number of first time donors were reached through the efforts of volunteer solicitors during the telethon held on campus in the spring.

Frank C. Rittenhouse, '36, President of Aluminex, Inc. of Timonium, Md., led the Church Gifts Committee to stimulate support from churches for the operational budget and to underwrite their part of the church-college matching grants to individual students. A total of $61,821 was contributed to the operating budget for special purposes and for student grants during the year, an increase of more than $3,000 over the preceding year.

Members of the Estate Planning Committee with Chairman Harold H. Hersch, '51, a Manassas, Va. attorney, have been providing the College with valuable assistance by promoting the importance of charitable contributions as a way of making lasting and worthwhile investments.

Membership in the giving clubs increased significantly during the past fiscal year largely due to the efforts of the Giving Clubs Committee under the leadership of Garland F. Miller, '33, President of Dominion Manufacturing Company of Bridgewater. The 554 persons in the giving clubs, 100 more than last year, contributed a total of $172,238.26 to the program, an increase of more than $16,000 over the preceding year. The leadership provided by these club level participants have encouraged others to join in providing the vital support so necessary to the successful operation of this institution and to insure its progress.

The Major Gifts Committee under Chairman William H. Groseclose, Executive Vice President of Rockingham National Bank, Harrisonburg, has been channeling its efforts into the development of major gift support. Funds are being sought for special named endowments, academic chairs, and physical facilities.

The Parents Gifts Committee, under the leadership of A. Barry Blay, Vice President of the Standard Wall and Window Division of Kawneer Company in Harrisonburg, continued to help make parents aware of the financial needs of the College beyond that portion covered by tuition. The committee emphasized the importance of parent participation in meeting these costs with a response that resulted in a 26% donor increase over the preceding year.

Bridgewater College is fortunate in and deeply grateful for the dedicated volunteers whose interest and support help make possible the first rate educational opportunities provided for our students.

CORPORATE SUPPORT THROUGH THE VFIC

The contributions reported in the body of this report as coming to the college through the Virginia Foundation for Independent Colleges represent Bridgewater's share of the proceeds from the cooperative efforts of twelve of Virginia's private colleges and many hard-working leaders of the Virginia business community. Other colleges sharing in the VFIC contributions are Emory and Henry, Hampden-Sydney, Hollins, Lynchburg, Mary Baldwin, Randolph-Macon, Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Roanoke, Sweet Briar, Richmond, and Washington and Lee.

Although, because of space limitations, the listing of contributors published annually in the brochures of the Virginia Foundation is not repeated here, Bridgewater College acknowledges with gratitude the support of the firms affiliated with the VFIC effort as well as their concern for maintaining and improving a productive private sector in higher education.

Churches of the Brethren contributed $57,046 to the support of Bridgewater College during the 1976-77 fiscal year. In addition, $4,775 was given to be used as matching grants to individual students. The continuous support of churches is greatly appreciated. Congregations contributing to current operations for the year are listed here.
